

EMS Agenda 2050 Public Meeting

Los Angeles, California

January 17, 2018

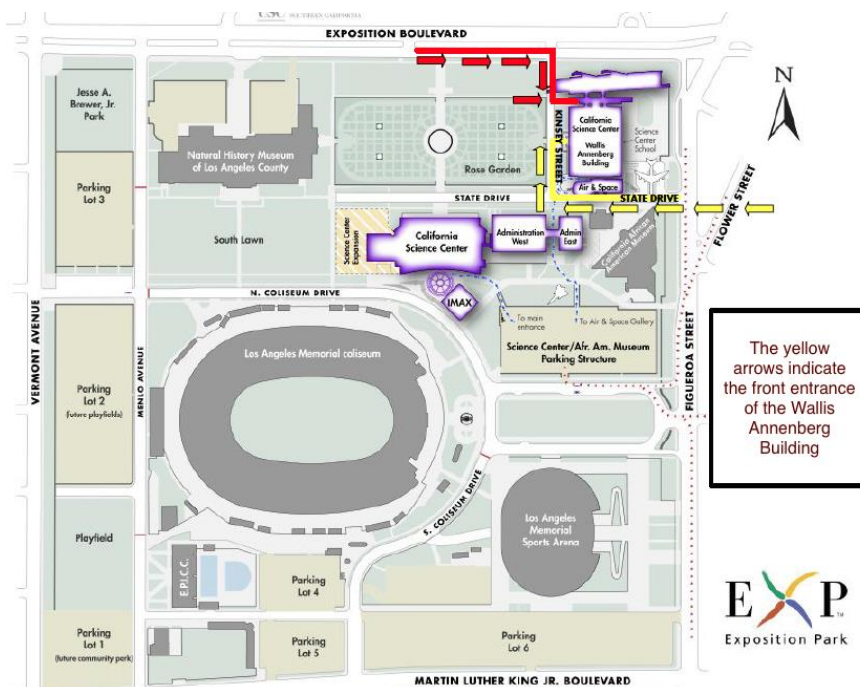

Thank you for registering for the upcoming EMS Agenda 2050 regional public meeting. The EMS Agenda 2050 team is looking forward to hearing your insight on how we can shape the future of EMS.

Meeting Location and Time

The meeting will take place in the Wallis Annenberg Building at the California Science Center located at:

700 Exposition Park Drive
Los Angeles, CA 90037

Registration begins at 7:45 a.m. in the Erteszek Family Foundation Muses room in the Wallis Annenberg Building, which is located on Kinsey Street; the meeting will start at 8:30 a.m. Look for signs for the “EMS Agenda 2050 Public Meeting.”

Lodging

There are no room blocks reserved for the meeting, but several hotels are nearby, including:

Radisson Hotel Los Angeles
Midtown USC
340 S. Figueroa St.
Los Angeles, CA 90007

JW Marriott Los Angeles
900. W. Olympic Blvd.

Public Transportation and Parking

The California Science Center is easily accessible by taking the Metro Expo Line and exiting at the Expo Park/USC station. From there, it is a 0.2 mile walk to the Science Center located on the south side of the Rose Garden. A map can be found online.

If driving, on-site parking is available at the Science Center for an all-day rate of $12. Please note and be prepared that cash is the only payment accepted.

The Day's Agenda

The meeting will employ World Café to help facilitate group discussion and brainstorming. Renowned as a whole group interaction method focused on conversations, it is a proven creative process for leading collaborative dialogue, sharing knowledge and creating possibilities for action in groups of all sizes. Mike Taigman, who will pose critical questions about the future role of EMS, will lead the process.

Members of the EMS Agenda 2050 Technical Expert Panel (TEP) will also help guide the meeting and solicit feedback and participation throughout the day.
